Telling Your Story - Advent Stories

Every Advent we share stories in a devotional written by folks right here at Central. It's a great way to get to know each other a little better and remember that each of us has a story to share. Whether you're an avid storyteller or you're still a bit shy about sharing your experience, this workshop will give you an opportunity to explore your story in the light of our Advent journey. Whether or not you choose to write a devotional this year, we hope these exercises will help you explore your place in God's story of love and acceptance.
