Legends Game - Support the Flockers Fighting Cancer

JOIN FLOCKERS FIGHTING CANCER

The Lexington Legends have chosen the Flockers Fighting Cancer as the community organization for their home game on July 12. Join us at the ballpark on Friday, July 12 for baseball, fireworks. an appearance by PJ Masks, and a chance to support the Flockers Fighting Cancer. Tickets are $5 and can be bought through a Flocker on Sundays at the signup table located in the foyer. We have purchased a set number of tickets and will try and get more if we sell out before the game but no guarantees after the first round of tickets are sold. For more information, please email Trisha at flockersfightingcancer@gmail.com.
