Baby Boomers - Tour of the Pope Villa and Lunch at Renada's Bistro + Bar

Join the Baby Boomers for a fun outing and lunch. The Pope Villa, located at 326 Grosvenor St. near downtown Lexington and the UK campus, is the best surviving domestic design of one of America's first professional architects, Benjamin Latrobe. It is considered among the most important buildings of Federal America. Find out more in this article by Tom Eblen in 2014 about the importance of Latrobe and the Pope Villa.
