Learn Watercolor Painting

Whether or not you've ever painted before, you can join us for a watercolor painting class. Pat Wilson will lead us through the basics of watercolor painting from basic composition to a variety of techniques to create your masterpiece. There is no fee, but students will need to gather their own supplies. Supply lists will be available at the signup table in the foyer and Pat will be available to advise participants in where to get supplies. Email Aaron (aaron@lexcentral.com) for more information or speak with Pat Wilson. Space is limited, so sign up soon! We'll begin September 10 and continue weekly for 4 - 6 weeks.
