Worship at 11 - Guest Preacher Rev. Hannah Niday

This week as we worship together, we are excited to welcome Rev. Hannah Niday as our guest preacher. Hannah Niday is originally from Maynardville, TN. While attending Lincoln Memorial University she met her husband Adam. They moved to Washington, D.C. so that she could attend Wesley Theological Seminary for her Masters of Divinity. Upon graduation and the birth of their daughter Audrey, they moved to Lexington, KY for Hannah to begin her chaplain residency. While in Lexington they found Central Baptist Church and it instantly became their home church. Hannah was ordained by Central in 2016 just as she had accepted at full time job as Chaplain at Four Winds Community, a long term nursing home. She has also served Jackson Christian Church as pastor for the past two
