This Sunday as we focus on the care of God's creation, we welcome Rev. Carol Devine as our guest preacher.

Rev. Carol Devine is the Director of Admissions at Lexington Theological Seminary. She started at LTS in 2019 after serving as a Disciples of Christ (DOC) Pastor, most recently at Providence Christian Church on Brannon Road and prior to that in Harrison County. While a minister she led a ecological justice and stewardship campaign called the Green Chalice that has grown into many chapters throughout North American in the DOC denomination. A native of Lexington she is a graduate of Lafayette High School, Transylvania University and holds two Master's Degrees, one from UK and the other from LTS. She is the parent of three adult children and resides in Lexington.
