Writers Workshop

Whether or not you consider yourself a writer, this group is a great place to explore your creative endeavors or just get to know yourself a little better through writing. From memoirs, sonnets, speculative fiction, to ironic grocery lists, you can bring a piece to share or join in the conversation to find some inspiration. If you've got questions or would like to join us, email Aaron (aaron@lexcentral.com) for more information.
