Morning Worship - Join us in person or online

Join us this Sunday for worship in person or online. This week we welcome guest preacher Rev. Dr. Jan Cottrell. Jan is a dear friend of Central, and we are grateful for her presence with us.

Jan Cottrell is married to Ken Cottrell. Their blended marriage includes 3 adult children, 5 grandchildren and their Cairn Terrier, Paco. In terms of interests, both Jan and Ken are involved in ministry with Living Waters for the World, Prison Visitation and Support and Kentucky Refugee Ministries. They both enjoy playing golf regularly. Very regularly.

Jan received her Doctor of Ministry degree from the University of the South. After serving for 26 years as a Parish Priest in the Episcopal Diocese of Lexington, she completed 2 years of Clinical Mental Health training with an emphasis on Addiction & Recovery and Complex Trauma Treatment at the Lexington VA hospital. Both Jan and Ken completed four years of Jungian-based Dream Work and Spiritual Direction Training at the Haden Institute of Ashville, NC. Currently Jan shares a clinical practice with 6 Behavioral Health Providers in Nicholasville, KY at The Center for Relationships. Ken is an Optometrist providing eye-care at Nathaniel Mission and Mission Health Lexington.
