Nicaragua Mission: Living Well Class

Patricia Bunk will lead a discussion on missions and her ministry in Nicaragua in light of a formative text in her ministry. Here's more from Patricia about this class: "Missions has always been something I read about but then came the time for action. When Helping Hurts is a book on serving the poor. This is a book I have read and worked through while doing ministry. Come learn about my recent trip to Nicaragua and how this ministry has moved forward with the principles of this book."
