BSK Hinson Lectures with Dr. Cláudio Carvalhaes

Please join us right here at Central for BSK Theological Seminary's annual Hinson Lectures on March 4, led by Dr. Cláudio Carvalhaes!

- 10:30 a.m. - Morning Lecture "Spiritual Practices to Live in a 'World Who is Gone'"
- Noon - Lunch Catered by Watan Mediterranean Grill
- 1:15 p.m. - Afternoon Workshop "When the World is Gone, Where do We Go?"

We'll learn from the Psalms, poetry, earth knowledge, and forms of resistance from various peoples and places—engaging together in practices for sustenance, renewal, and transformation.

Earth thinker, theologian, liturgist, performer, artist and playwright, a native Brazilian from São Paulo, Cláudio Carvalhaes is now the Professor of Worship at Union Theological Seminary in New York. He is the author of Liturgies from Below: Praying with People at the End of the World. In the Fall of 2023, Carvalhaes received the award of The Most Creative Play at the New York Theater Festival with his play When Wajcha Meets Pachamama.
