

2017 Martin Luther King Events

Friday, January 13

Erev Shabbat Service, 7 p.m.

Temple Adath Israel, 124 North Ashland Avenue

The regular Friday worship service will feature a theme remembering Dr. King.

Saturday, January 14

Community Dialogue, 1 p.m.

East Second Christian Church, 146 Constitution Street

Rev. Ken Golphin of Quinn Chapel A.M.E. will moderate a panel with Commander Mike Wright of the Lexington Police Department, Darryl Love of the Fayette County School Board, and Rev. Carol Ruthven of the Episcopal Diocese of Lexington.

Sunday, January 15

Morning Worship, 11 a.m.

Central Baptist Church, 110 Wilson Downing Road

Rabbi David Wirtschafter will be our honored guest as we remember Dr. King's legacy in the context of our weekly worship service.

Community Dialogue, 1 p.m.

St. Michael's Episcopal Church, 2025 Bellefonte Dr.

A community dialogue on issues of race in Lexington.

Community Service, 6 p.m.

Central Christian Church, 205 E Short St.

A worship service featuring the Rev. Dr. Forrest E. Harris Sr., President of American Baptist College in Nashville, Tennessee since 1999. Dr. Harris is also the Director of the Kelly Miller Smith Institute on Black Church Studies and Assistant Dean for Black Church Studies at Vanderbilt University Divinity School.

Monday, January 16

Unity Breakfast and March, 6:30 a.m.

Lexington Civic Center

This annual event sponsored by the Education Foundation of the Alpha Beta Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity will feature Dr. Seamus Carey, president of Transylvania University and Brigitte Blom Ramsey, executive director of the Pritchard Committee for Academic Excellence. Tickets are $25 each and can be purchased at the "Shop Now" button on the Unity Breakfast Facebook Page at: ablchapter1906. The breakfast is followed by a march through downtown Lexington.

Alpha Phi Alpha Public Gathering, 11 a.m.

Lexington Heritage Hall

The Unity Breakfast and March will conclude with an event featuring an a cappella group from Oakwood University and a speech by Rev. Dr. Otis Moss III, pastor of Trinity United Church of Christ in Chicago, Illinois.