JOIN US AS WE CONSIDER GENESIS 22:1-14

This Sunday, we continue our journey with Abraham by considering Genesis 22 and the binding of Isaac. This difficult passage leads us to ask some hard questions. It pulls us into Abraham's struggle. What does the way of God look like in this time and place? What does it mean to be faithful? As we journey this difficult way with Abraham, we'll see how God helps us look past our limited theologies and cultural confines to a place of liberty and welcome—a place where we can release the bonds we use to marginalize and oppress others, and ourselves.
